RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On April 20, 2015, Lara Felker ("petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act" or "Program"). Petitioner alleges that she suffered an injury to her left shoulder as a result of a tetanus-diphtheria-acellular pertussis ("Tdap") vaccine administered on September 22, 2014. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit ("SPU") of the Office of Special Masters.

On October 29, 2015, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 4. Specifically, respondent stated that petitioner's alleged injury is consistent with a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA") and was caused in fact by the Tdap vaccine she received on September 22, 2014. Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Respondent identified no other causes for petitioner's SIRVA and determined, based on the medical evidence of record, that petitioner has suffered the condition for more than six months. Id. In light of the foregoing, respondent concluded that petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act. Id.

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
